THE 25 MOST STYLISH BOSTONIANS

YOON S. BYUN/GLOBE STAFF

They are musicians and CEOs, athletes and architects. Some frequent the city's most luxurious boutiques; others prefer thrift shops or their own designs. But all have that certain something — a spark that transforms mere good taste into bona fide style. With this, our second annual list of the 25 Most Stylish Bostonians, we present the tastemakers who've surprised us, impressed us, or otherwise grabbed our attention over the past year. You won't see any faces from last year's list, though clearly they're as stylish as ever. You will instead meet an array of Bostonians, like Jose Pascual and Fernanda Bourlot (above), for whom style is about far more than clothes or labels or trends. It's about how they live.
